Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
 God's work. Our hands.

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; God's steadfast love endures forever. (Psalm 136:1)

I was humbled by the generous gifts I received for "Pastor Appreciation Sunday." I continue to thank God for the fact that I was called to be the pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church and that I was given the opportunity to serve as the vice pastor of Hope Lutheran Church.

Back in 2014, many Lutheran congregations were unwilling to call an openly gay man; Trinity recognized and has appreciated the gifts that I bring. More recently, when faced with an existential crisis, Hope was willing to entrust themselves to my care. Amid all of the stress of the past two years of the merger process, I have come to believe that we have a bright future together.

Trinity is now ONE congregation that worships and serves God in TWO locations. I am learning to call our Fifth Street North location our "historic downtown campus" and the 62nd Avenue North location our "new Meadowlawn campus."

For the sake of strengthening relationships (and to preserve my health!) it is essential that we move as quickly as possible to have only one worship on a Sunday morning. After conversation with our church staff, particularly our music directors, I think the best time for Sunday worship is 10:30.

If you have a compelling reason why we should worship earlier or later, let me know. But this time will allow us to have a choir practice before worship and ample time for fellowship and for adult education and/or confirmation classes after worship.

Sunday worship will move back and forth between our two campuses. My proposal is to have worship at the downtown location on the first two Sundays of each month and at the Meadowlawn location on all of the remaining Sundays of each month.

I am asking that this schedule begin on Sunday, November 23, when Pastor Frederick Bartelt will preach and preside over worship for Christ the King Sunday. This service will be at the Meadowlawn campus at 10:30.

Worship on November 30, the First Sunday of Advent, will also be at Meadowlawn at 10:30; worship on December 7 and 14 will be at the downtown campus at 10:30. The other Sundays in December will return to Meadowlawn.

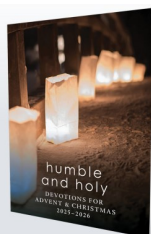

Christmas Eve services will be on both campuses. Last year's pattern worked well, so, our earlier service will take place downtown with a later service at Meadowlawn.

The people who have served as lectors reading scripture and as communion assistants need to be consolidated onto one schedule. Please call a church office and let us know if you want to continue to be on our growing roster of worship assistants. This is a good time to add yourself to their ranks. Helping in these capacities, working with our altar guild, singing and playing bells, and assisting with fellowship are how we make worship a work that is shared by all of God's people.

As we move into the seasons of Advent and Christmas, my prayer is that we will all experience how "God's steadfast love endures forever."

Your brother in Christ,
 - Pr. Paul

Notes from the Organ Bench

Now that the spooky season is over, we get to enjoy turkey month! I've always enjoyed the little events that Trinity has done for thanksgiving, and I hope plenty of you can make those this year. We also have Christ the King Sunday coming up on November 23rd, and the spectacular guest violinist Chris Barbosa will be joining us! Please make sure to come in time for the prelude to enjoy some beautiful music.

For those who don't know, I'm currently in EMT training, and I'm quite bad at taking blood pressures. If you'd like to help me practice, I'm bringing my stethoscope and blood pressure cuff to church on Sundays! This is a great opportunity to get a free and wildly inaccurate blood pressure check-up.

That's all from the organ bench, see you on Sunday!

Organist and Director of Music

Hi ALL! I am looking forward to the day when we will be together worshipping each week!

Rehearsal times have changed for our combined practices at Hope; we currently are meeting at 6:30pm on Thursdays. I would like to invite all members of Trinity choir to join us for rehearsal. If you have any questions, please email Ross at rtkmusicman1@gmail.com.

Pastor Paul and I are preparing for the Solar Fundraising Concert. We are doing a selection of Broadway and familiar songs and arrangements. I am looking forward to an evening of food, fellowship and music. I hope to see many of you there. This is a great event and outreach to invite a friend or neighbor! They will not be disappointed.

Organist and Director of Music

Solar Fund-Raising Concert

The Meadowlawn campus is going solar! Members of the congregation have donated $150,000 for roofing upgrades and the installation of solar panels. As a part of their efforts to raise the $75,000 needed to complete the project, Pastor Paul and Ross Kimura are presenting a fund-raising concert at the Community Supper on 11/7.

For the suggested donation of twenty dollars, you can enjoy a delicious meal created by Tom Herzhauser as you enjoy a program of Broadway favorites and standards by Gershwin, Porter, and such; songs that celebrate the sun, the wind, and other sources of renewable energy!

Join the celebration and come to this joyous evening of music, food, and fellowship.

Giving Thanks for All Things

It's easy to list the blessings in life: good health, family, a satisfying career, a comfortable home. We might even be thankful for things others take for granted such as freedom and clean drinking water, reliable transportation and food enough to eat. Then there are the little things, such as gardens, sunrises, pets and coffee. But what about life's storms or unanswered prayers? Should we be thankful for these? Loss and hardship remind us of our dependence on God. He uses trials to draw us closer to him, to show us that He is our rock and refuge. In misfortune and grief, we discover God's comfort and strength. Should we not, then, be thankful for the storms, too?

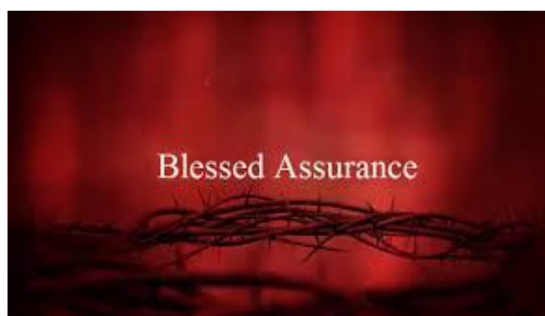

Blessed Assurance

Tune composer Phoebe Palmer Knapp (1839-1908) played a melody to Fanny Crosby and asked, "What does the melody say to you?" Crosby replied that the tune said, "Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!" and proceeded to recite the entire first stanza of the now-famous hymn. Knapp was one of several tune writers that worked with Fanny Crosby. It was not unusual for one of her texts to be inspired by a preexisting tune. Knapp was the composer of more than five hundred gospel hymns and tunes.

Fanny Crosby (1820-1915), blind at the age of six weeks, was a lifelong Methodist who began composing hymns at age six. She became a student at the New York Institute of the Blind at age 15 and joined the faculty of the Institute at 22, teaching rhetoric and history.

An author of more than 8,000 gospel hymn texts, she drew her inspiration from her own faith. Crosby published hymns under several pen names including "Ella Dale," "Mrs. Kate Gringley," and "Miss Viola V. A." Her hymn texts were staples for the music of the most prominent gospel song writers of her day. "Blessed Assurance" (1873) is one of the ten most popular hymns sung by United Methodists.

Crosby captured the poetic essence of the Wesleyan understanding of Christian perfection in the phrase, "O what a foretaste of glory divine!" The entire hymn is focused on heaven, a place where "perfect submission" and "perfect delight" [stanza 2] will take place. The earthly existence is one of "watching and waiting, looking above" [stanza 3]. As we submit ourselves to Christ and are "filled with his goodness" and "lost in his love" [stanza 3], we are remade in Christ's image and are moving toward Christian perfection.

This hymn appeals to the senses in a rich way. Not only do we have a "foretaste of glory," we experience "visions of rapture [that] burst on my sight," and we hear "echoes of mercy, whispers of love" [stanza 2]. The refrain calls us to "prais[e]. . . my Savior all the day long," echoing I Thessalonians 5:17, "Pray without ceasing."

Middle class women in nineteenth-century United States had little voice in worship, however. One of the only ways for a woman to claim the authority to be heard was by direct personal revelation from God. Fanny Crosby readily claimed God's personal revelation as a source for her hymns; her personal revelation then became a communal inspiration as Christians throughout the world sang her hymns and confirmed her faith experience as their own.

Blessed Assurance — Lyrics (ELW 638)

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

Refrain

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

2. Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love. Refrain
3. Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love. Refrain

Text: Fanny J. Crosby, 1820-1915

Our Mission and Priorities

Most of you know that I work also as a Mary Kay Independent Beauty Consultant. Every week my team gets together on a zoom call to share our individual successes, provide encouragement and support for each other, and discuss anything new that may affect our individual businesses. At the close of each meeting, one person will be called upon to provide an "inspirational close" on which we will end.

Last week, the inspirational close was "A list of positive thoughts that live rent free in my head."

One of these thoughts really struck me as being apropos as we do the hard work of discerning the mission of and vision for our church, so I wanted to share it with you:

If people could only see your actions and not hear your words, what would they think are your priorities?

- Leah Heinicke

Common Council Highlights (items discussed at both locations)

Worship Services:

- We will move to a single worship service beginning on 11/23 (Christ the King Sunday), at which Frederick Bartelt will preside. This service will be held at the Meadowlawn facility at 10:30am.
- Going forward (in Advent and beyond), the 10:30am Sunday service will be preceded by our choir practice and will be followed by fellowship time that leads into adult education. Our Downtown facility will host the services on the first two Sundays of the month; our Meadowlawn facility will host the services on the remaining Sundays of the month.
- No mid-week worship in Advent, but everyone is encouraged to participate in the Advent by Candlelight event that is being planned for 2pm on Nov 30th.
- Thanksgiving Eve service will be at 7pm at the Meadowlawn facility.

Bible Study:

- Current study series: “Why the Bible” — intended to address how and why we read and study the scriptures.
- In Advent: The Gospel of Matthew
- New Year: ABCs of Healthy Grieving

Merger:

- The initial draft of a document giving a very high level side-by-side view of the financial position of both Trinity and Hope was reviewed and discussed. The document had been requested by Alan Due. The purpose of the document is to ensure that all members have a better understanding of the church’s financial position.
- Looking to plan a retreat day for the combined council (post-merger, if it passes). Possibly 11/11 or 11/15, stay tuned.
- Question: do we need to keep QuickBooks in order to stay with General Accounting Services? Angie to research.
- Foundry Group: Carlin Beekman, VP Mission Property Group will be worshiping with both congregations on 11/2 and will speak afterwards on how her team can help us develop a plan for our properties as a merged congregation to further our mission. All recommendations from her team will be derived through the lens of our church’s mission and vision.

Other Upcoming Events: (See insert on p7)

Additional Discussions at Hope (10/21/25)

Question: Do we need to keep QuickBooks in order to stay with General Accounting Services? Angie to research.

Thrift Store: Overflowing. We are passing items on to other organizations every day. YTD earnings: $4196!

Month of Caring:

- In gratitude for all we have, change is collected for others in need. This is maybe something we can do in Advent?

Roof and Solar Update:

- Solar plans require revisions due to exhaust issues and Fire Department requirements.
- When panels are installed, there will be several hours without power. We will have to coordinate with the preschool.
- Fundraising concert on 11/7, which would be the date of our regular First Friday dinner.

Miscellaneous:

- Bees have been moved.
- Could/should we have a beehive?
- How about a rain garden (drainage)
- Members of Grace Family Church have indicated a desire to do service projects at the Meadowlawn campus.
- Homeless policy will be tabled until post-merger.
- Nov 29 @ 9am: Christmas cleaning and setup.
- An issue was raised regarding the volume of the music during the service. Ross will try to lower it some.

Additional Discussions at Trinity (10/21/25)

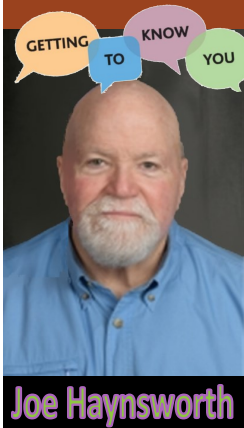

Membership: requests approved for two new members: Hayden Fulton & Kelly Osborne

Landmark Status: Grant opportunities are being reviewed. All Trades may be able to help us identify additional options.

We had applied for one grant (11 to Save) this year, but did not get it. We will try again in 2026. We will also follow up on the process to ascertain the value of any TDRs that are available to us with our landmarked property.

City Church: Pr. Paul worked with City Church on needs and agreement to lease. He presented council with a “first draft” of a lease agreement drafted by City Church. This is NOT a final document! Pastor will create an editable document of the draft for council members to review and return with any questions or suggestions. Space usage and alternate spaces for storage were discussed.

Facility Use: Karen and Alan will work on creating an alternate facilities calendar to show all groups, meetings, events, and use of the downtown church properties.

I am a local from the town of Gulfport, Fla. My parents, Raymond and Kathleen (Kitty), had met in Newport News, VA during WWII. My dad was from Polk County Fla and in the Coast Guard and mother was from North Carolina and worked in the shipyard offices. They eventually ended up coming back to Florida. My Dad went to work for his brother Thea who owned Florida Builders and was developing portions of Gulfport, the beaches, and what is now the Meadowlawn area.

My first job I can remember having — I was about 12 or 13 — was mowing vacant land in Meadowlawn with an old International Harvester tractor and that would include the land where Hope Lutheran is currently located. At the time, 62nd Ave was a dirt road that only extended as far as Haines Road.

I graduated from Boca Ciega High School in 1970 with my classmate, Daryl Stewart, where we also played football. We were a year behind Jim Bertoluzzi and a year ahead of Carol. After high school I served in the U.S. Air Force mostly in California and Asia. After my discharge I returned to Florida and worked several jobs in Jacksonville and St Pete and after a few years decided to enroll at St Petersburg Jr College where I graduated. After graduation I enrolled at USF and majored in secondary education. While taking these courses I was recruited by two of my high school coaches to assist them at brand new Pinellas Park High School, it was a lot of fun.

While I was going to USF, I took a temporary job at St Pete Printing doing the phone books for GTE Directories. I worked in the press room and bindery. They offered me a fulltime position which later led to a management position and my moving to the publishing office. I moved back and forth between publishing and printing for several years until I became the eastern region publishing manager. Oh, and that's when I met a wonderful lady who had moved to St Pete to be a trainer for our office. Her name is Leah Heinicke. You may know her. I retired from the publishing company in 2005. Just figured I'd do more fishing and playing golf.

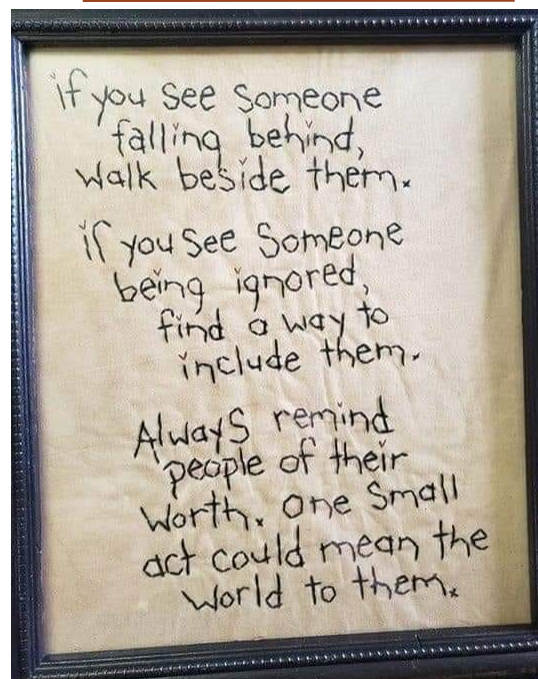

I started coming to Trinity full time after the pandemic, I felt that coming just on Christmas or other holidays wasn't enough and wanted more. I enjoy Trinity and being part of this blessed and wonderful congregation. I appreciate the welcome you have shown me and hope I have shown it in return.

Gratitude Shift

When we look at what we want, and then compare that with what we have, we shall be unhappy.

When we think about what we really deserve, and then compare that with what we actually have, we shall thank God.

Bible Quiz

James 1:17 reminds us about the source of every blessing. According to this verse, how is God described?

- A. The one who changes like shifting shadows
- B. The giver of wisdom to the faithful
- C. The Father of heavenly lights who does not change
- D. The one who rewards those who are generous

Answer: C (See James 1:17)

Christian Symbol:

CIRCLE — The circle is a symbol for God, as well as for eternity, due to its lack of a beginning or an end. It also reminds us of how the church year (not unlike the secular calendar) flows from season to season and moves smoothly from Christ the King Sunday (the culmination of the liturgical calendar) to the First Sunday of Advent (a new beginning). Indeed, the One who rules all is the same One whose first and final comings we anticipate anew during Advent.

Notes from The Events Desk

We welcome November as the start of our Lutheran Services Angel Tree Project. There will be a tree set up in both sanctuaries with red “angels” from which you can select. The “angels” are not designated for a specific child, but rather provide gift ideas and the age range for your gift. Once you have purchased your item(s), just bring them to the church where I’ll have a large box provided by LSF to keep the gift items. Since shopping for teenagers is not always easy, we will once again have our “Christmas Boutique”, featuring gift items specifically requested by LSF foster care teens. The boutique can provide an easy way to pick up something you know they’ll like...and you don’t have to pay shipping! The deadline this year is Sunday, Nov 30. Sadly, we will be losing Tina Villanueva as our LSF contact person. She and her family have opportunities in Missouri, which will allow Tina to spend more time with her young children. We will miss her so very much!

“Trinity’s 4th Annual Friends & Family Thanksgiving” will be held on Thanksgiving Day, at noon, on the 3rd floor at the downtown campus. Many of you may have plans already, but if you don’t, come be a part of this special fellowship event. The dinner is open to congregants of both campuses, and their invited guests. The turkey will be provided, with everyone bringing their favorite autumn side dishes. Good company, party games, and no dishes to wash??? It’s a good thing! A sign-up sheet will soon be posted on the bulletin board in the fellowship hall at the downtown campus. Sign up in person, or call the church office to be added!

“Advent By Candlelight” will be held in the CommUNITY Room (North Campus) on Sunday, November 30, at 2:00pm. If you haven’t had the opportunity to attend before, we invite you to come be a part of this lovely introduction to the Advent season. Each individual table is decorated in a different style for the season. Attendees at each table bring food to share. Pastor is designing an Advent program that will celebrate this season of peace and joy and light. A sign-up sheet will be posted so we have an idea of how many folks to expect. Please come be a part of this sweet event... and feel free to invite a friend!

Mark your calendar for Saturday, December 6, 9am-1pm, for the Meadowlawn Association’s, “Holiday Market”. This is their first year sponsoring this event and they are looking for crafters, bakers, and organizations who would like to sponsor a booth. Contact me if you’re interested. More details will be made available soon.

Back in the day, Bob Burke used to send letters to congregants who were unable to attend Sunday worship service. The letters would include sweet greetings from Bob along with his description of the scripture readings and anything else of note that took place at Trinity that Sunday. If you were lucky enough to get one of Bob’s letters, what a delightful blessing it was! The letters were just too precious not to be preserved, so I gathered them together into “The Book of Bob”. I’ve put the book in the lounge area of the fellowship hall (Downtown campus) near the recliners, a perfect area to sit back and enjoy Bob’s wit and inspiration. Thank you, Bob, for your legacy of letters!

Church Membership Records & Directory

Now that we are ONE congregation, we need to update our membership records to ensure everyone’s information is up-to-date!

Angie will be printing reports from Servant Keeper which we will use as our source documents for entry into Shepherd’s Staff. After all available data has been entered into Shepherd’s Staff, we will print out data sheets for all members and get them out to everyone for review. We would like to get all copies back showing either (a) corrections to be made or (b) confirmation that everything is correct.

Once the data sheets are returned to us we will make any necessary corrections to your record in Shepherd’s Staff. We will also enter the appropriate information into our online church directory, Universal Church Directory.

The church directory also features a photo... so if you have one that you want us to use, you can return it with the form or email it to us! Anyone who is added to the church directory will receive an email with a “Unique Identifier” which will enable you to access the directory — either on your computer (<https://directory.ucdir.com/>) or on your smartphone (download from apple’s app store or from google play).

Thanksgiving Worship Service

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, Nov 26th and join us at 7pm for a special service of gratitude at our North Campus (1801 62nd Ave N). Through music, prayer and Scripture, we'll lift our voices in thanksgiving for God's faithfulness in every season.

Bring a non-perishable food item for the pantry and a symbol of something for which you are thankful. There will be a time in the service when we share what the symbols mean to us.

Serving in 2026

If you would like to be in the rotation to serve during our worship services in 2026, now is the time to let us know!

We will be generating the 2026 roster for Ushers, Lectors, and Communion Assistants. There will be sign up sheets on the bulletin boards at both campuses. Thank you !!
