REFORMATION SUNDAY: IT'S NOT FOR EVERYBODY

For Lutheran Christians Reformation Day is October 31 [and you thought it was just for Spider boys and Frozen girls!]. It is the day Martin Luther nailed those theses to the parish door in Wittenberg and ignited what we call the Reformation in the Lord's Church.

But not all groups of Christians observe this day. We Lutheran Christians, however, have for ages used the nearest Sunday to draw attention to this time and even use the same scripture passages each year as well. Jeremiah proclaiming how God will make with us a new covenant; Paul declaring that following the law doesn't justify or make us right with God, grace does; our Lord stating that as we continue as his disciples, we will know the truth and the truth will make us free.

We need reminding of these things. In fact, isn't that why we worship regularly in the first place? God is worthy of our worship, and you and I need to be reminded regularly what we believe and why.

Otherwise, this all too possessive world will take us captive, turn us in on ourselves, make us think we are at the center.

Our blessed Lord is always reaching out to us, reforming his church and seeking to form our hearts to his ways. Listen carefully during our Live Generously stewardship emphasis, and you will hear more of the changes the Spirit works in us as we Live in the freedom of a Generous God.

So, get ready for Sunday, October 28! Sure, a Reformation Sunday observance may be more of a Lutheran Christian tradition. But who could argue with roots that sink deeply into the rich soil of the gospel of a grace-giving God who sets us free to live in faith.

Let's turn aside, pondering what it means to "Live Generously."

Live Generously

"...do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share...take hold of the life that really is life." – 1 Timothy 6

By the time you receive this newsletter, you will have seen at worship that our Live Generously stewardship emphasis has begun.

It was in the power of the Holy Spirit that Paul encouraged his brothers and sisters in Christ at the end of his letter to be generous and ready to share...to take hold of the life that really is life. And we know who the Author of this blessed life is – the Holy One who is most generous. The God who created you and me has given us all that we have and all that we are.

In the coming weeks we will discuss more what it means for you and me to Live Generously. We will even consider how the Spirit works to strengthen our faith and indeed change us, form us more into our Lord's beloved people as we do so.

During our Sunday morning learning time from September 30 – October 14, join Pastors Adam and Joe in the COC. We will consider God's generosity toward us, how we respond and the work of the Spirit in our hearts in every season.

Sunday, October 21 is our Consecration Day. In the coming weeks we will receive a letter containing an Estimate of Giving card and a Time/Talent summary. We encourage you after prayerful thought to complete these items, as we all look to continue our ministries in our Lord in 2019. Bring them to worship on October 21, where we will present them to God, offer prayers of thanksgiving and seek God's blessing.

What a blessing that we may turn aside and ponder aloud, and in our hearts, the abundant blessings of God!

$300 | ELCA World Hunger

Over 800 million people world-wide cannot access the food they need to live healthy lives. In August, $300 was provided to the ELCA World Hunger Global Farm Challenge and was matched dollar-for-dollar.

PRAYER AROUND THE CROSS

October 24th at 7:07PM

Last month's prayer around the cross brought together over 60 of us—children, youth and adults—to share in a blessed time at the end of the day. We gather in the sanctuary literally around a cross, and we sing, pray, listen for God's Word in scripture and sit in contemplative silence. There is no rush. We pray for our world and for friends in need, for strangers and for our work as God's people here. Some friends choose to light candles and place them around the cross, as a way of helping us recall those for whom we pray. They reflect the Light in whose name we gather. Come for a peaceful moment at the end of an otherwise hectic day, surrounded by brothers and sisters in Christ—all in prayer. Invite and bring a friend.

ONEBLOOD AT POP – SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14 [8AM-1PM]

OneBlood will be at Prince of Peace to receive your donation of whole blood. If you are able, become a donor. A critical number of voluntary donations are required every day to meet the need for blood. We appreciate your life-saving efforts!

ADULT LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES ON SUNDAYS

Sundays [October 7-14] Live Generously

Sure, we always say that all we have comes from God. But just what DOES that mean? If God gives so generously, how might we Live Generously?

Let's spend some time together considering the gifts of God for the people of God. And as we do we will grow in our understanding of how we live and how God's generosity and our response actually change our hearts. The door is open for everyone!

Sundays [Oct 21 - Nov 25] Making Sense of Scripture

Making Sense of Scripture is a dialogue that encourages readers to bring their questions or doubts to the table when reading scripture.

During this conversation we will discuss how we read and interpret the Bible, as well as how we may question scripture - and how scripture questions us.

Pr. Sharon Dorr will lead this class.

Inquirers' Class Sundays through October 28th - 10AM in the COC Faith Room

We began an Inquirers' Class on September 16 where we have considered what we Lutheran Christians believe. We have been discussing God's work in our lives, our questions, and our ministries in Christ here at Prince of Peace. If you would like to come, we always welcome more friends to be a part of the group.

On Sunday, October 28 at 11AM, all who wish to make Prince of Peace their church home will come forward with the group during worship, and we will voice prayers of thanksgiving for them. After worship we will greet these friends during a reception just outside the sanctuary. We thank God for opportunities in so many settings to learn and grow as God's own in Christ.

ADDITIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Wednesdays [October 3] | Domestic Abuse

The issue of domestic abuse has been in the news more and more in recent years. While it may be sad that the issue seems so prevalent, it is a blessing that we can discuss it together and seek as the faithful of God to understand what friends may be enduring and to know how we may be a help. Counselor Eleanor Salemi will lead these classes.

Wednesdays [October 10 - November 14] | Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White

Based on a book by Methodist pastor Adam Hamilton, this class explores how persons of faith can model for the rest of the country a richer, more thoughtful conversation on the political, moral and religious issues that divide us.

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 4

It was this festival day of the church - All Saints' Day, November 1 - which prompted Luther to post his words of protest on October 31. He knew that people would be streaming through the church door the next day and would read his words.

We will observe All Saints' Day on Sunday, November 4. It is a day in our life together when we remember all of the saints who have gone before us - all who now rest in our Lord. Washed into our Lord's Church, we may live confident of the grace, mercy and power given us to live in faith through all the world throws at us. It is also a day to praise God for the new saints among us, baptized just this past year.

In the coming Sundays, please write on the attendance insert the names of friends or family who have passed away or who have been baptized in the past year. You may also contact the Church Office: 727.585.9969. Let us worship together in the joy of celebrating our "sainthood" in Christ!

MORE HAPPENINGS FOR YOU

Booked for Dessert – October 19th at 7pm in the Choir Room. This month we're reading The Rainbow Comes and Goes: A Mother and Son on Life, Love and Loss by Anderson Cooper and Gloria Vanderbilt.

TELL IT ON MISSOURI

An update on PoP's Electronic Messaging Sign

As we reported last month, documentation for the sign has been submitted to the City of Largo. At submission, however, we were given additional forms which required our contractor, Thomas Signs, to measure and take photographs of all signs on our property. We do not know the rationale for such a request, but apparently it is a requirement. Our contractor has been diligent in his work, and we await a day, we hope, in the near future when construction of the sign can begin. In the meantime, ministry in Christ at PoP continues by God's grace!
